C++ Fundamentals - Test Exam - 00:02:49

Докладвай грешка в този въпрос | Назад (/tests/all) | | Край на теста |

| < | | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | | > |

(/participation/participation/participation/participation/participation/participation/participation/participation/3894)

Въпрос 1

Why the C-style strings always need to end with a terminating null character `\0`?

Отговори

◉ It is needed in order to use the C-style string methods (to know where the string ends);

○ It makes the performance of the C-style string twice as fast;

○ It is only there for historical reasons and has no practical use;

○ It is the only difference between C and C++ style strings;

Тестова система на СофтУни

версия 20160310.1.0.2